1. The evacuation of villages in rural areas adjacent to the Yugoslav, Austrian, and Czechoslovakian frontiers was completed to clear the area for incoming Soviet troops and International Brigades. There is no anticipation of any immediate action by these troops.
2. Recently one Panzer division consisting mostly of Tartars with Soviet officers was assigned to the Bananja area of the Yugoslav - Hungarian border in the Beli Manastir, Belisce, Kis Koszeg-Szond region. It is reported that three regiments of auxiliary Bulgarian troops were withdrawn from this area allegedly because they were unreliable. Some of them deserted across the Yugoslav border.
3. During the last few days the political police made new arrests possibly related to the Rajk case. Five Yugoslav agents were arrested in Kisepest. The agents allegedly had diplomatic passports but were not accredited."
4. [redacted] received a report that three Czech infantry regiments and one Czech Panzer brigade with Soviet advisors arrived from Czechoslovakia and were transported to the southern border of Hungary.

*  Comment: Statement regarding passports may be erroneous.
